LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill:
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House:
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

CERTIFICATES OF INCORPORATION.

"COMPANIES ACT."

No. 16855.

NOTICE is hereby given that "Pacific Cedar Manufacturing Company, Limited," was incorporated under the "Companies Act" on the 26th day of August, 1939.

The authorized capital of the Company is one hundred thousand dollars, divided into one thousand shares of one hundred dollars each.

The address of its registered office is 1318 Standard Bank Building, Vancouver, B.C.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To carry on business as sawmill and shingle-mill proprietors and operators, timber, shingle, and lumber merchants, loggers and lumbermen in all or any of their branches, and to buy, sell, prepare for market, manufacture, manipulate, import, export, and deal in timber, sawlogs, shingle-bolts, lumber, shingles, wood, and forest products of all kinds, and to manufacture and deal in any by-product of wood or of the forest, and in articles and products of all kinds in the manufacture of which timber or wood or extracts of timber or wood of any kind are used or form a part, and to buy, clear, plant, and work timber estates:

(b.) To construct, work, equip, maintain, improve, and operate logging-railways, tramways, light railways, logging-truck roads, and tractor roads, and to construct branches or sidings, warehouses, roundhouses, electric works, shops, stores, docks, piers, booming-grounds, and other works for the handling or storage of logs and other timber products, and other works and conveyances which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to advance the Company's interests, and to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, improvement, maintenance, working, management, carrying-out, or control thereof:

(c.) To carry on business as ship-owners, charterers, and carriers by land or water, wharfingers, warehousemen, general merchants, store and hotel keepers, coal and fuel merchants, and dealers in general provisions, supplies, and merchandise of all kinds:

(d.) To search for, stake, lease, record, obtain options over, purchase, or otherwise acquire, grant, sell, lease, operate, exchange, or otherwise deal in timber lands, timber licences, timber limits and leases, claims, berths, pulp licences or leases, resin licences, or any licences or permits relating to any product or by-product of the forest, concessions, foreshore-sites, wharves, docks, piers, booming-grounds, and other works for the handling or storage of logs and other timber products, mill property, mill-sites, driving rights, water-powers, water lots, rights-of-way and other easements, rights, privileges, and property whatsoever in any part of the world, whether real or personal, or any estate or interest therein, which may be required or considered convenient for any purpose of the Company or in connection with any business carried on by it, or which may be considered desirable of acquisition by the Company; to acquire any rights in and remove obstructions from any river, lake, creek, or stream, and to do all things necessary to make the same clear and fit for rafting and driving thereon logs, lumber, rafts, or crafts, and for such purposes to blast rocks, deepen channels, remove shoals or other impediments, or otherwise improve the floatability of any river, lake, creek, or stream:

(e.) To manufacture, buy, sell, and generally deal in any plant, machinery, tools, goods, or things of every description which, in the opinion of the Company, may be conveniently dealt in by the Company in connection with any of its objects:

(f.) To pay for any property acquired by the Company, either wholly in cash or partly in cash and partly by a mortgage or mortgages for the balance of the purchase-money, or by the issue of debentures for such purchase-money or any part thereof, or to give any other security for the payment or part payment of any property so acquired which may be agreed upon between the vendor of such property and the Company:

(g.) To enter into any contract of insurance permitted by law and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing powers, to effect all such insurances in relation to any part of the Company's business and any risks incidental thereto as may seem expedient:

(h.) To take, have, use, and enjoy all the powers conferred by the "Water Act" of the Province of British Columbia, and to develop, accumulate, and utilize water-powers for the purpose of generating electricity or other motive force, similar or otherwise, and to supply the same for the production, transmission, or use of power for lighting, heating, or motive purposes in connection with buildings and other works of the Company, with authority to sell or otherwise dispose of any surplus electricity or power generated by the Company's works, and to construct and operate lines for such purpose, subject to all local, municipal, and Provincial laws and regulations in that behalf:

(i.) To amalgamate with any other company, whether by sale or purchase (for shares or otherwise) of the undertaking, subject or not to the liabilities of this or any such other company, with or without winding-up, or by sale or purchase (for shares or otherwise) of all the shares, stock, debentures, or other securities of this or any such other company, or in any other manner.

The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall not, except when the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause or by the name of the Company.

(h.) To acquire, hold, charter, operate, mortgage, lease, alienate, convey, repair, alter, and build all such steamers, and steam, electric or gasoline launches, tugs, barges, boats, or other vessels, or any interests or shares therein, as may be necessary or convenient to the business of the Company, and to let out to hire or charter the same, and to carry passengers and freight in any of the said ships or boats, and to collect moneys for fares and for the carriage of such passengers and freight:

(i.) To carry on all or any of the businesses of carriers by land and sea, draymen, barge-owners, lightermen, forwarding agents, warehousemen, and wharfingers:

(j.) To purchase, pre-empt, take on lease, or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real and personal property of every nature or kind, and any rights or privileges, and to pay for the same in cash or shares of this Company, or partly in cash and partly in shares of this Company, and to construct, maintain, and alter any buildings, machinery, plant, equipment, or works which may be necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company, and the same to operate, hold, mortgage, pledge, lease, sell, and convey at pleasure:

(k.) To purchase, lease, construct, or otherwise acquire and hold foreshore with territorial water rights, foreshore rights and privileges, and other easements and privileges as may be found necessary or convenient for carrying on the business and furthering the objects of the Company, and to pay for the same in cash or shares of this Company, or partly in cash and partly in shares of this Company, and to sell, convey, lease, pledge, or mortgage the same or any part thereof:

(l.) To carry on all or any of the businesses of general contractors and builders:

(m.) To acquire, operate, and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, assets, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, and to pay for the same in cash or shares of this Company, or partly in cash and partly in shares of this Company, and to assume and guarantee the payment of such liabilities:

(n.) To acquire from the Government of the Dominion of Canada, or any of the Provinces thereof, or of the United States or of any State or Territory of the United States, or from the Government of any foreign country, or from any municipal or local authority, or otherwise, any concessions, licences, leases, rights, and privileges that may be found necessary or convenient for the attainment of the purposes of the Company, or any of them, and to exercise generally all such powers as may from time to time be conferred upon the Company by charter, licence, or other proper executive power, executive or legislative authority, and especially within the Province of British Columbia to apply for, purchase, acquire, and hold licences (including, but so as not to limit the same, Class A, Class B, and Class C licences referred to in the "Water Act"), concessions, leases, records, rights, and privileges, to take, use, and store water, and to construct and operate works, and to clear and remove obstacles from any stream or streams for the purpose of making the same fit for rafting and driving logs, and to supply and utilize water in accordance with the provisions of and for any and all of the purposes mentioned in the "Water Act" of the Province of British Columbia, Dominion of Canada, and any amendments from time to time thereto, or in any other Act or regulations of competent authority which from time to time may be in force in the Province of British Columbia, or any portion thereof, and to have, use, exercise, and enjoy within said Province all and every the powers, rights, and privileges which a Company can or may acquire, use, exercise, or enjoy under the said Act and amendments, or under any other Act or regulations of competent authority which from time to time may be in force in the Province of British Columbia, or any portion thereof, relating to the acquisition, supply, sale, barter, exchange, storage, or use of water or water-power, or to the clearing or removing of obstacles from any stream or streams for the purpose of making the same fit for rafting and driving logs, or the construction or operation of works in connection therewith:

(o.) To lend money to the shareholders or directors of the Company as part of the ordinary course of the Company's business:

(p.) To make gifts and donations to any person, firm, or corporation for any purpose whatsoever, whether the said person, firm, or corporation be a member of this Company or not.

And it is hereby declared that the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause shall, except where otherwise explained in such paragraph, be in nowise restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of this Company, but nothing herein shall empower the Company to carry on the special businesses of a trust company.
